Police appeal after three are attacked

One victim in his 50s knocked unconscious

POLICE are hunting a man in a Puffa jacket after three attacks that left one man in his 50s unconscious and another man with a suspected broken arm.

Officers were called to reports of a burglary in Burton End, Haverhill, just before 8pm on Wednesday, November 23.

Several men are reported to have forced their way into a 29-year-old man's home before assaulting him.

The man was left with a suspected broken arm and hand, as well as cuts and swelling over his head and body.

A 19-year-old woman who was at the Burton End property reported she was also assaulted and suffered swelling to her arm.

HANNAH MIRSKY

Detectives believe that these attacks are linked to another assault at 10.10pm the same evening.

A man in his 50s was knocked unconscious following an incident at Chantry Road, near the junction with Camps Road.

Police have arrested a 24-year-old man on suspicion of assault, possession of an offensive weapon and aggravated burglary.

He has been released on bail pending further inquiries and is due to return on Thursday, December 8.

Police are asking witnesses or anyone who has information that may help with the investigation to get in touch.

They are particularly keen to identify a suspect described as wearing a Puffa jacket and jeans.

If you have information call Suffolk Police on 101 quoting crime reference number 67924/16 for the Burton End incident and crime number 67925/16 for the Chantry Road incident.

You can also call Crimestoppers, anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Cyclist taking on long distance ride

SADDLING UP: Cyclist Stuart Bayne is taking on a 2,100km bike ride

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

A HAVERHILL dad is hoping to raised £22,500 for charity by taking on a 2,100km bike ride in New Zealand.

Stuart Bayne begins the ambitious 18-day ride on Sunday morning New Zealand time.

He will be raising money for the Down's Syndrome Association – a charity he has already raised £17,000 for by cycling 1,100km across Europe last year.

Stuart, 53, said: "My wife's from New Zealand – we have been over there a few times. This is something more exciting. I'm looking forward to it."

He has been planning the trip for more than a year, starting last November. But he has had to make his route more challenging after earthquakes struck.

Stuart, a sales manager, said: "The earthquakes have caused landslides along the route I was originally planning to take which means that I will now have to move away from the low coastal roads and go further inland and cycle a further 2,000 metres in elevation, which will be tough."

Stuart, who has family experience of Down's Syndrome, has already raised an incredible £16,000.

He thanked his employer NGK Spark Plugs, which has been collecting for the Down's Syndrome Association at motor shows.

He also thanked the New Zealand Down's Syndrome Association, which has arranged fundraising events during Stuart's cycle ride.

He added: "It's also been the support of my customers as well as local friends and family – it's everybody really."

To support Stuart's ride, you can visit uk.virginmoneygiving.com/StuartBayne or contact him directly by emailing stuart.bayne@ngk.co.uk

CHRISTMAS

TV star to say 'Allo 'Allo before turning on Christmas lights

A STAR of 'Allo 'Allo will turn on Haverhill's Christmas lights tomorrow night.

Sue Hodge, who played Mimi Labonq in the popular sitcom, is set to appear in Haverhill's pantomime at the arts centre later this month.

She will switch on the lights in an evening that also includes late-night shopping and a craft and gift fair.

The lights will be turned on at 6.30pm in the town's Market Square, and the evening will conclude with fireworks on the Recreation Ground at 8pm.

A "World Village Market" will also be running in Queen Street from 10am to 8pm tomorrow and 9am to 5pm on Saturday.

Saturday will also see an ice rink springing up on the Market Square between 10.30am and 4.30pm.

On Wednesday, December 7, a civic carol service with the Haverhill Silver Band will be held at St Mary's Church in the Market Square from 7pm. It is free to attend and all are welcome.

Children see Santa at store

SANTA made a surprise visit to Haverhill's Tesco over the weekend.

Children were able to join Father Christmas in his sleigh for festive photographs, while his elves went round with buckets collecting money for good causes.

They raised more than £440, and are set to raise more as Santa appears at his grotto in the Sturmer Nurseries Garden Centre over the next three weekends.

He will be there from 10am to 3pm and visits cost £6 per child including a small gift. There is no need to book.

The events are being organised by the Haverhill Lions Club.

Concern over housing cuts

CONCERNS have been raised over a plan to save £1.4million which could leave 45 vulnerable people in West Suffolk without a place to sleep.

The proposal has been made as part of a Suffolk County Council draft budget for next year which was discussed last night.

It affects housing-related support services, which help 6,000 vulnerable people across the county find or stay in housing – including those who were formerly homeless and those who have problems with drug abuse, mental illness and physical disability.

County council documents say that research shows that there is not enough provision in the east of Suffolk, and too much of it in the west.

It is proposing moving services from west Suffolk to east Suffolk – a move estimated to save £1.4million.

But officers for St Edmundsbury Borough and Forest Heath District Councils say they have challenged the numbers suggesting there is "over provision" of these services in the west.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

They say this move would equate to a loss of 45 bed spaces for vulnerable people in West Suffolk.

A spokesperson for the councils, which work together on housing, said: "We have challenged the figures on which this decision was based and while we understand the resources available to provide these services are shrinking, demand is increasing and we have concerns as to what the impact may be in West Suffolk."

The concerns were echoed by Haverhill county councillor Tony Brown. He said: "The move over to the east of the county seems to be some sort of policy. Everything seems to be moving over there, and especially for Haverhill, it's leaving people in a vulnerable position."

"It's getting to the stage now where we are cutting things to the bone, and it's going to affect people's lives."

The move is part of a draft budget which was discussed by the county council's scrutiny committee last night.

Changes may be made before the county council's budget goes before the cabinet in January and the full council in February.

A Suffolk County Council spokesperson said that the council needs to make savings of between £40million and £45million over the 2017/18 financial year.

He said this was due to ongoing cuts in the county council's funding from central government.

The draft budget proposes cuts in other areas, including highways, libraries and councillor locality budgets, but also proposes freezing council tax.

CRIME

Burglar gets 18 months in prison

A BURGLAR who attempted to steal from a village home has been jailed for 18 months – after leaving behind a phone case containing his DNA.

Andrew Dunkley, 28, of Horse Shoe Lane, Weston Colville, pleaded guilty to attempted burglary before his trial was due to begin at Cambridge Crown Court on Friday.

The court was told that on August 15, Dunkley broke into a garage at The Rookery, Balsham and attempted to gain entry into the adjoining house before he was disturbed by a neighbour.

He made off in a vehicle empty handed – but left behind a mobile phone cover which officers were able to use to forensically link him to the offence.

DS Andrew Gaunt-Warner said: "The sentence should serve as a warning to others and highlight how seriously burglary is taken in Cambridgeshire."

"Burglary remains a priority for Cambridgeshire Constabulary and we aim to put offenders before the courts while urging residents to take home security seriously."

REAL LIFE

Keeley's battle with cancer

A MOTHER-of-three who was diagnosed with stage three cervical cancer aged just 24 has said that smear tests should be available to women younger than 25.

Keeley Skipp, now 28, who lives in Jay Close, Haverhill, was given the Overcoming Adversity Award at ONE Haverhill's Apprenticeship Awards on Friday, November 18.

The judges chose her for taking on an apprenticeship after fighting off the disease and looking after her three children.

Keeley started having symptoms of her cancer when she was just 21, but was misdiagnosed and treated for other illnesses.

She was finally told that it was actually cervical cancer when she was aged 24 on a family holiday at Disneyworld with her husband, parents-in-law and children.

She said: "I think we all knew already."

"I had been telling the

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

doctors that I had it myself, but obviously I wasn't old enough for a smear test."

Keeley had to undergo a hysterectomy, and when doctors performed the operation they realised that the cancer was larger than they had previously thought and had spread to her lymph nodes.

This is known as stage 3B cervical cancer.

She was told that this kind of cancer takes 10 years to develop – meaning Keeley originally got the disease while she was a teenager.

She was at higher risk of the disease because by the age of 24 she had already had her children, now aged 12, 6 and 5.

Keeley said that she believes smear tests, which are only currently available to women aged 25 and over on the NHS, should be available to younger women, "especially if you have had children or you've got risk factors".

After her operation, she had to undergo six weeks of chemotherapy and radiotherapy, turning up at the hospital at 7.30am every morning.

There are still two years left before Keeley officially gets the all clear, but the cancer has so far shown no signs of returning.

During her treatment, Keeley's two younger children, Logan and Layla, were attending Stepping Stones Preschool, based at Coupals Primary Academy in Chalkstone Way.

A year ago, Keeley was approached by Elaine McManus who runs the preschool, and offered a job.

"She asked me to think about it," said Keeley. "She thinks I've got what it takes."

And so she began an apprenticeship at Stepping

SHE'S A STAR: Keeley Skipp at work at Stepping Stones Pre-School with 4-year-olds Harvey and Harper

Stones – which was itself named Employer of the Year at the ONE Haverhill Apprenticeship Awards.

Keeley says she loves the job and is on track to get a professional qualification by July.

She said: "Before I was at Stepping Stones I was sitting at home thinking about [the cancer]."

"I wouldn't be where I am today if it wasn't for Elaine and Stepping Stones."

The judges for the ONE Haverhill Awards described Keeley as "a real inspiration"

– but she said that receiving the accolade came as a surprise.

"I wasn't really expecting it – I was just asked to come along. It was nice," she said.

Keeley says she is looking forward to continuing her career in childcare.

EDUCATION

JOINING: Castle Manor Academy in Haverhill's Eastern Avenue

School merger goes ahead

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

A MERGER between Haverhill's two academy trusts is officially taking place today.

Plans for the schools in the Castle Partnership Academy Trust (CPAT) to join the Samuel Ward Academy Trust (SWAT) were announced in March.

The move means that Castle Manor Academy, Burton End Primary Academy and Place Farm Primary Academy are now part of SWAT.

As a result, seven of Haverhill's schools are now part of the trust – leaving just three outside it.

Chief executive of SWAT Howard Lay said: "We are delighted to welcome Castle Manor, Burton End and Place Farm into our trust."

"We believe that the support and challenge we will bring, rooted in strong values, will ensure that all three schools have a successful and positive future."

"We have been impressed with the way that the school staff, parents and larger community have engaged with us over the transition."

'OPPORTUNITY': Head of Castle Manor Vanessa Whitcombe

It has taken a long while but we wanted to get the best possible deal for the pupils of all schools."

The trust was founded in 2012 but has expanded so quickly that it now incorporates 13 schools in the West Suffolk area.

Head of Castle Manor, Vanessa Whitcombe, said: "For Haverhill, this is a huge opportunity to bring all the schools together and make sure we are working closely for the good of all children in the town."

WELCOME: Chief executive of the Samuel Ward Academy Trust Howard Lay

"This will allow us to share resources and ideas across the trust while ensuring Castle Manor retains its individual character."

Burton End head, Madeline Vosper, said: "I think the closer schools and staff can work together, and the more resources everyone has access to, can only lead to better outcomes for everyone."

Her thoughts were echoed by head of Place Farm, Jane Sendall, who said: "We think this move will help all pupils in the town."

ONLINE APPEAL: Ann Merrigan of REACH Community Projects appearing in one of the charity's new videos

Charity's festive appeal goes digital

A HAVERHILL charity has launched a YouTube channel – just in time for a Christmas appeal.

REACH Community Projects, the charity which runs Haverhill's food bank, has so far put out two videos.

The second appeals for donations of mince pies, Christmas crackers and more for the charity's festive hampers.

You can take donations to the REACH stall at the Christmas Market in Haverhill High Street and Queen Street tomorrow and Saturday.

To find the channel, search "REACH Community Projects" on YouTube.

CRIME

Police alert after spate of break-ins

POLICE are warning residents to be on the alert after a series of burglaries at rural locations around Haverhill in the space of a week.

The series includes four break-ins at homes in Clare within four days, which the police are treating as linked.

The first took place at a home in the town's Church Street, between November 20 and 24.

Offenders smashed a rear window to gain entry to the property and stole items from inside.

At a home in Common Street, Clare, two gold bracelets were stolen on Wednesday, November 23. Offenders entered the detached house between 8.40am and 6.45pm by going through a window that had been left open.

The items of jewellery are described as a gold link bracelet and a gold solid band bracelet.

The same day, between 11am and 7.30pm, a home in Clarence Road, Clare, was broken into. The victims are not aware of any items having been taken.

The final burglary in Clare took place in the town's Hertford Road, between 12pm on Thursday, November 24, and 5.45pm on Friday, November 25.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

Nothing was taken as all valuables were kept in a safe, but damage was caused to the property.

Entry was gained by forcing a padlocked side gate and a rear ground floor bedroom window. A rear patio door was also smashed and a search was made of the property.

A burglary of an unoccupied home took place between November 18 and 21 in the village of Cowlinge.

Entry was gained via a rear door, and the thieves took copper pipes, the hot water tank and electrical wiring.

In Great Thurlow, between 5.52pm and 5.59pm, suspects gained entry by cutting a fence and forcing open storage containers.

They stole two three-inch submersible pumps and a two-inch submersible pump, a nine-inch angle grinder, a TE40 breaker, an 110 volt impact wrench, 2.7KVA and 3.4KVA generators, a petrol disc cutter and a brush cutter.

The incident was caught on CCTV but police believe due to the quality of the footage it will not lead to the identification of the suspects.

There were two more incidents in the villages of Chedburgh and Rede.

In Bury Road, Chedburgh, a shed was forced open between 3.30pm on November 22 and 8am on November 23. There was no sign that the shed had been entered.

In Whepstead Road, Rede, two padlocked barns were entered and offenders took the padlocks with them.

Three male suspects were seen attempting to hook up a trailer that had been dragged half out of a barn to a vehicle.

When the men were challenged, they made off in a dark coloured saloon vehicle, leaving the trailer behind.

Police are urging residents to make sure their homes are secure in light of these incidents.

If you have information about any of these incidents, call Haverhill police on 101.

You can also call Crimestoppers, anonymously if required, on 0800 555 111.

CHARITY

Christmas dinner for everyone

PEOPLE in Haverhill who would otherwise spend Christmas Day alone are being invited to spend the day with Haverhill's Salvation Army.

The annual event is set to take place at the home of Haverhill's Salvation Army in Chantry Road.

The day is set to begin at 10.30am with worship, which will be followed by a Christmas dinner and entertainment.

Each guest will also be presented with a small gift.

Anyone who would like to attend should call the Salvation Army on (01440) 705 247.

Reservations must be made by Saturday, December 17.

CRIME

Old Mini Cooper is stolen

POLICE are appealing for information after a Mini Cooper was stolen in Haverhill.

The car was taken from a car park behind the victim's home in Charrington Close, Haverhill, between 10pm on Friday and 5am on Saturday.

The Mini is an H-plate green and white model believed to have been manufactured in the early 1990s.

If you saw anything or have any information, call Haverhill police on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

WHAT'S ON

Concert to feature silver band

HAVERHILL Silver Band will be performing at a festive concert on Sunday.

The event will be at Haverhill Arts Centre at 4pm.

Both the silver band and the youth and community band will perform festive classics old and new.

There will also be a quiz and a mystery competition.

Tickets cost £6, or £2 for concessions, and are available by calling the arts centre on (01440) 714 140 or visiting haverhillartscentre.co.uk.

The band will also be appearing in a carol concert at the Old Independent Church on Sunday, December 18.

POLICE

Court guidelines 'need reviewing'

SUFFOLK'S Police and Crime Commissioner has hit out at court sentences handed down for driving at excessive speeds.

Tim Passmore believes that the sentences are making the public "lose confidence" in the criminal justice system.

He said recent court cases highlighted the need to revise sentencing guidelines.

Mr Passmore said: "The excessive speed at Mildenhall of 154mph, the 133mph case near Bury, are examples of a need to reinforce or request the magistrates to look at some of the sentencing, where you get such excessive speed - which is irresponsible and inappropriate - a ban of a few weeks

"My own view is that someone going at 150mph, instead of giving them a few weeks, it should be considerably longer.

"I'm very concerned that it's not getting the right message across to road users. It's not a suitable deterrent. The guy was going double the speed limit. The guidelines only go up to 110mph, and there isn't a guideline above that."

SAMAR MAGUIRE
@SamarMaguireCN

Mr Passmore added: "They [magistrates] have the power to change the rules. They're not shackled. But it's a bit like the planning system where they stick to the guidelines."

The PCC, who said he had raised the problem with the director of public prosecutions and the criminal justice board, would be submitting suggestions to the Sentencing Guidelines Council within the next few weeks.

In April this year, Louie Howlett, 21, from Lakenheath, was caught speeding at 154mph on the A11 at Icklingham.

Officers said it was the highest recorded speed on a Suffolk road.

In August, Howlett was banned from driving for 56 days and ordered to pay £365 - a punishment which Suffolk police said at the time was "disappointing".

A Sentencing Guidelines Council spokesperson said: "Magistrates sentence offenders according to the facts of the case and within the parameters of the law and sentencing guidelines for the offence someone has been convicted of.

"As well as following sentencing ranges set out in sentencing guidelines, magistrates must set fine levels according to the income of the offender, giving a fine based on a percentage of weekly income, and the percentage level varies according to the seriousness of the offence.

"The sentencing council is reviewing all the magistrates' sentencing guidelines and will publish updated guidelines in the new year, which will include speeding."

Drivers take eye tests

HAVERHILL motorists took advantage of free eye tests offered to mark Road Safety Week.

Wardale Williams in Haverhill's Camps Road offered the tests on Wednesday afternoon.

Senior optometrist Jo Williams said that all the adults she tested met the DVLA standard for driving.

She continued: "It is so important that all drivers have regular eye examinations as gradual changes in the eyes can cause a loss of vision that the driver may not be aware of."

All of those who had their eyes tested took the "Brake Pledge".

Drivers who take the pledge, created by road safety charity Brake, promise to keep their speed down, avoid distractions, get their eyes checked and never have alcohol before getting behind the wheel.

Report to be done on A1307 traffic

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

A REPORT on traffic flows on the A1307 is set to be carried out after Haverhill's MP met the Roads Minister.

West Suffolk MP Matthew Hancock met John Hayes at Westminster yesterday.

He said afterwards: "Today's meeting with John Hayes and representatives from Highways England was extremely productive and we are making progress on the major areas of concern in West Suffolk."

"The A1307 was up for discussion and it was decided that there will be a funded report of traffic flows on the road. I have long campaigned for the dualling of the road and made my views known to the Minister."

The meeting came after Haverhill's Chamber of Commerce launched a campaign earlier this year to get the A1307 turned into a dual carriageway.

PRODUCTIVE MEETING: MP Matthew Hancock

Mr Hancock also discussed other problem roads in his constituency, including the A14 and Fiveways roundabout.

He said: "I was very pleased that we are moving ahead to improve both the congestion and the safety on the roads in my constituency and thank John Hayes for his time and interest with these matters."

POLICE

Anti-social antics on industrial site

POLICE are asking "boy racers" who gather on a Haverhill industrial estate to respect the local community.

Officers at Haverhill Police station say they have received reports of cars gathering in Homefield Road throughout November.

PC Lawrence Allen said: "It's boy racers, gathering on the business premises, setting off fireworks and generally littering. It's something we need to start highlighting because we have had other complaints around the town."

He said that there had been reports earlier in the year of similar behaviour in the car park at Haverhill Tesco.

While this behaviour on the industrial estate causes less immediate nuisance to residents as it is not near residential properties, it leaves businesses with a considerable amount of mess to clean up in the morning.

He suggested anyone going out to such a gathering should take a dustbin liner in their car so that they could pick up their litter,

Councillor wants new crossing on school road

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

THOUSANDS of drivers are speeding on a road where children walk to school and the park, leading to calls for a pedestrian crossing.

A vehicle-activated sign recorded the speeds of more than 10,000 vehicles between November 13 and 20 in Coupals Road, Haverhill.

Of these, 54 per cent were travelling at 30mph or above, and the average speed on the 30mph road was 35 to 40mph. Two drivers were clocked at between 60 and 70mph.

Haverhill town, borough and county councillor Tony Brown said the fact that children travel down this road to East Town Park and Coupals Primary Academy made the figures particularly shocking.

He is working towards having a pedestrian crossing and possibly an island built on the road. This would make it safer for pedestrians and act as a traffic calming measure.

Cllr Brown said: "East Town Park is one of the highlights of the town. I live not far from there and I have noticed over the past few years it's becoming increasingly used."

DETERMINED: Cllr Tony Brown
Picture: Keith Jones

He said on top of this, there would be an increase in pedestrians as Coupals Primary Academy begins a planned expansion that will lead to it almost doubling in size.

He said that one of the possibilities outlined in the school's travel plan was having a "walking bus" setting off from East Town Park – leading to more children than ever crossing Coupals Road.

Cllr Brown said: "If the walking bus comes forward [a crossing] would make that a lot safer."

Speeding drivers around the school have come under fire before, when parents launched a campaign in October, 2015, aiming to get the speed limit reduced to 20mph.

Cllr Brown has already met Suffolk Highways about getting the crossing delivered.

Coupals Primary will begin expanding in September 2017, and Cllr Brown said he would be "really pleased" to have the crossing delivered by then.

CRIME

Police back campaign to tackle abuse

SUFFOLK Police are supporting a campaign to spread awareness about domestic abuse.

The White Ribbon campaign started on Friday and runs until Saturday, December 10.

The campaign invites residents to wear a white ribbon to show their support for eliminating domestic violence.

It is thought that 35 per cent of women and girls globally experience some form of sexual or physical violence.

In Suffolk, between the start of April last year and the end of March this year almost 9,000 incidents of domestic abuse were reported.

This year, Suffolk Police have trained 800 frontline staff in recognising domestic abuse and supporting victims.

Police and Crime Commissioner for Suffolk Tim Passmore says he has commissioned £1.7 million worth of services to support victims of domestic abuse. He said it was one of his top priorities.

For help and support call police on 101, or the national domestic violence helpline on 0808 2000 247 or go to national-domesticviolencehelpline.org.uk or suffolk.police.uk/advice/assault-abuse-threats/domestic-abuse

Lifetime award for scientist

A HAVERHILL scientist has been presented with a lifetime achievement award.

Richard Pannell was presented with the award by his employers, the Medical Research Council, in Holborn, London on November 17.

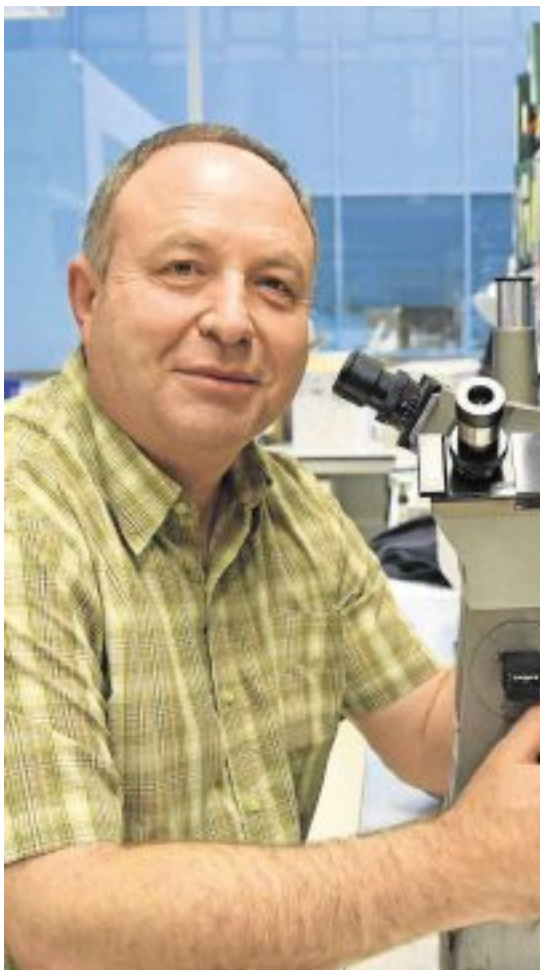

Richard has been working at the Laboratory of Molecular Biology in Cambridge since November 1980.

During that time he has worked with two scientists who went on to win Nobel prizes. During the 1980s and 90s he worked with Nobel Laureate Cesar Milstein, whose work on antibodies revolutionised cancer treatment.

Richard is set to retire next year.

He is also known in Haverhill for his work as secretary of Haverhill Silver Band. He will also step down from this role next year.

Third blackout hits 1,165 homes

A POWER cut last Thursday night affected 1,165 Haverhill homes – and for some residents, it was their third this month.

The lights went out at 10.15pm last Thursday in the Blenheim Close and Boyton Close area of the town, due to a fault in an underground cable.

UK Power Networks said that 1,165 homes were affected and power was restored in stages throughout the night.

The last 166 homes had their power restored via a generator around 5.40am on Friday morning.

But a fault with the generator meant that the same 166 customers lost power again between 10.17am and 10.30am.

Other residents reported on social media that they experienced problems such as flickering lights.

A spokesperson for UK Power Networks said: "We understand how difficult it is to be without power at this time of year and apologise for any inconvenience caused."

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

The power cut followed one on Tuesday, November 8 and Wednesday, November 9. An overnight blackout between the two days affected 272 homes.

On November 9, a further power cut affected 168 properties in the town, including Samuel Ward Academy, which was forced to send students home and cancel a performance of a school play.

UK Power Networks said that the most recent power cut was not related to the blackouts on November 8 and 9 – but that some of the same homes were affected.

Samuel Ward Academy was not affected by the power cut on Thursday.

Residents reported their frustration on social media.

One said that his power went off while he was working from home on Friday morning, adding: "Well to put it bluntly, I am getting a little peeved with this."

Another said that hers was out well into the night, saying: "We couldn't sleep coz we left a candle burning in the hallway as my son was petrified."

Among the affected buildings was Haverhill's Tesco superstore, which lost power at around 11pm – but there was no affect on trading, as staff there switched on back-up generators within a matter of minutes.

One customer posted: "When I left Tesco's . . . they were using back-up generators and all the checkouts needed to be rebooted, actually so scary."

Friends complete year of charity fundraising

TWO Haverhill friends who each lost a parent to cancer have completed a year of fundraising activities.

Kerry Farrant and Emma Williams have held numerous events, from bingo nights to family fun days, across the year.

The final event was a Christmas Fair at the New Croft in Haverhill's Chalkstone Way on Friday.

Kerry, a healthcare assistant who lives in Haverhill's Mill Hill, said around 500 people attended.

She said: "It was a constant flow – we had some nice hot chocolate we were selling and [the New Croft] had the kitchen open."

There were also stalls selling gifts, a raffle and a tombola.

Kerry and Emma will be dividing the money they have raised between the cancer ward at Addenbrooke's and St Nicholas Hospice Care.

After smashing their initial target of £10,000, they had hoped to reach £20,000, but their current total stands at £12,280.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

They will be accepting donations until mid-December.

Kerry said: "I personally have done this for my dad, and Emma has done it for her mum. That's what started this whole thing, us raising money for the people that helped them."

"It's helped me through my first year without my dad and I know that he's proud of what I have done."

She thanked the New Croft for providing a venue for all the events, and the four companies that funded the marquee on Friday night: PM Building Services, NC Brickwork, AK Scaffolding and printing company Xcel.

To make a donation, visit facebook.com/mymum-1mydad1 or call Kerry on 07824 883 094.

Changes at maternity unit after survey of new parents

CHANGES have been made to maternity care at West Suffolk Hospital after a survey of hundreds of new parents.

The Healthwatch Suffolk survey of 373 people found that mothers and their birthing partners had broadly positive experiences at maternity units across Suffolk.

However, it recommended improvements in areas such as overnight stays for partners, information supplied and antenatal appointments.

The West Suffolk NHS Trust is now set to review how it offers overnight stays to partners, which are currently on a case-by-case basis.

It is also set to review its antenatal appointment structure, and to ensure staff attend sessions on delivering excellent care.

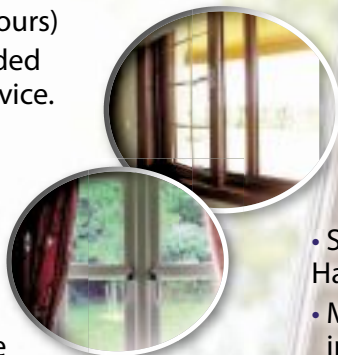

The hospital will review antenatal classes to ensure all content is appropriate, and is producing a leaflet on emotional changes after birth.

Andy Yacoub, chief executive of Healthwatch Suffolk, said: "This project has demonstrated that genuine improvements can be made to services when we work closely and collaboratively with providers of care."

Warning over derelict sites

POLICE are encouraging residents to call 999 if they see people entering a derelict building after a fire was started deliberately at a historic warehouse.

The blaze, at the former Atterton and Ellis site in Haverhill's Hamlet Road, was started on the evening of Sunday, November 20.

The fire was burning for hours and was attended by dozens of firefighters, and police are now hunting for the arsonists.

At a Haverhill Town Council planning committee meeting on Tuesday, Mayor of Haverhill, David Roach, said the torched building now had to be demolished.

The incident was one of a number where individuals broke into derelict properties in Haverhill.

On Wednesday, November 9, vandals broke in to the Corn Exchange in Haverhill's Withersfield Road.

The weekend before, November 5 and 6, they also attempted to gain entry to the former social services building and magistrates court in the town's Camps Road.

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

Police say there have been similar incidents at Atterton and Ellis before the blaze, and the pub formerly known as the Fox and as the Rising Sun in Watting Road.

PC Lawrence Ellis, of Haverhill's Safer Neighbourhood Team, said officers believe most of the incidents involved local youths and offences such as criminal damage and graffiti.

But he said that the situation had become "more sinister" since the blaze at Atterton and Ellis.

He urged residents to call 999 if they saw anyone entering a derelict property.

He said this was not simply about prosecuting possible offenders, but also about safeguarding, as most derelict sites are dangerous, particularly the burnt-out Atterton and Ellis building.

Suffolk County Council, which owns the former magistrates' court building in Camps Road, says it has upped security at the site since the incident there earlier this month.

Similar appeals to residents were made by town councillors at a meeting last week.

Cllr Tony Brown said at a full council meeting on Tuesday, November 22: "In light of what happened to the Atterton and Ellis site, if anyone sees anyone going into any derelict buildings in the town, they should call 999, because it could be a matter of life and death – some people sleep in these buildings."

Caring for animals at

AT BELGRAVE HOUSE VETERINARY SURGERY: David and Val Urwin

LOCATED in the village of Linton, Belgrave House Veterinary Surgery has been caring for animals in the local community since 1985. The surgery was established David and Val Urwin, who still run the practice and work hard to provide a caring, quality service for all pets and livestock, with the help of their expert team.

Val says: "Being a small, independent practice allows us to provide the warm, friendly and personal service you and your pet deserve. We aim to ensure continuity in the treatment of all pets by our veterinary surgeons, two of whom now have more than 35 years' experience.

"If any case requires the expertise of veterinary specialists we can easily arrange referral to the most appropriate of facilities in the south east. In some cases the specialist will come and examine your pet at the practice."

Specialists who regularly visit the practice include cardiologist Paul Smith and ophthalmologist David Williams.

Belgrave House Veterinary Surgery is able to supply full medical and surgical care and has digital x-ray, ultrasound and blood chemistry analyser facilities on site.

David says: "We are blessed with wonderful clients and we will always go the extra mile to ensure they and their pets get the best service possible."

"We are pleased to offer home visits for those occasions when it is not possible or desirable for our patients to visit us at the surgery."

It is perhaps no surprise then that the majority of new clients come via recommendation from existing clients, many of whom have been registered with this practice since it opened.

The veterinary surgery is open Monday to Friday from 8.30am to 7pm and Saturday from 8.30am to 12 noon. Belgrave House Veterinary Surgery is situated at 139 High Street, Linton, Cambridge, CB21 4JT. If you would be interested in joining this dedicated team they are currently recruiting additional nurses.

For more information or to make a consultation appointment please call the surgery on (01223) 893720. Consultations are by appointment only.

closer look at... B & C Glass

B&C is your local Glass act

B&C GLASS Ltd is a small, friendly and local business which has been operating since 1981 in Haverhill. In that time it has built a reputation unrivalled in the industry.

"We serve many large contractors and companies, but also supply the general public and trade," says office manager Pippa Ketteridge. "We're very versatile and can literally deal with any order involving glass that you could imagine."

"We can supply and fit secondary glazing, quality UPVC and aluminium windows, doors and conservatories, but can also help with any small order: a replacement picture frame glass or window pane for example, or a fridge shelf."

Other services available include the supply of greenhouse glass, glass

B&C GLASS: Unrivalled reputation built over 30 years' experience shelving, furniture tops, toughened safety glass, mirrors, balustrading, well covers, single glazed glass, bevelled glass, leaded glass, coloured glass splashbacks and shower enclosures. All single-glazing glass is kept in stock, ready for cutting to size for immediate availability.

B&C Glass make kitchen and bathroom splashbacks in-house – available in any colour – which are becoming very popular as they provide a sleek, modern and clean finish, with no need for tiling and grout.

B&C are also able to repair or replace UPVC locks, handles and other window or door parts to help avoid unnecessary full frame replacement costs.

They offer both supply-and-fit or supply-only service. "We are always happy to offer advice and information to assist a customer if they would like to fit their glazing themselves," explains Pippa. "With over 30 years of experience, we are able to pass on a wealth of glazing knowledge."

Shelves, mirrors and furniture tops can be supplied on a same-day basis if needed, as it's all done available for immediate supply (only toughened glass requires a week for delivery).

B&C Glass also offer emergency call-outs for repairs and boarding of shop fronts or homes in an emergency.

Contact Pippa or B&C Glass director Gary Ellis to discuss your requirements today. B&C Glass Ltd is at Unit 5, Cherry Gardens, Helions Bumpstead Road, Haverhill, Suffolk CB9 7AA.

FESTIVE FEEL: Last year's Family Christmas Weekend

■ Friday, December 2 – Friday, December 9

■ Do your Christmas shopping in town and get something a little bit different at the arts centre Christmas Craft Fair tomorrow and Saturday. It ties in with Haverhill Town Council's Family Christmas Weekend which involves such events as a World Market in the town centre tomorrow (10am to 8pm) and Saturday (9am to 5pm); the Friday Christmas lights switch-on (with Sue Hodge from 'Allo 'Allo, 6.30pm on the Market Square); late night shopping (5pm – 8pm High Street and Queen Street) and the firework display (8pm on the Recreation Ground). On Saturday there is a free ice rink on the Market Square (10.30am – 4.30pm).

■ There are more seasonal treats in store with the Haverhill Silver Band Christmas Concert, a light-hearted show with a variety of music, carols, quizzes and games. Bells are a jingle on Sunday, December 4, at 4pm

■ On the silver screen, Tom Hanks reprises his role as Harvard symbolologist Robert Langdon in Inferno (12) on Monday, December 5, at 1.30pm. Adapted from Dan Brown's bestselling book Langdon, who must be quite the expert by now, finds himself embroiled in another potential disaster with global consequences. With all the practice he's had saving the world in The Da Vinci Code and Angels and Demons, it is sure to be a cinch.

■ Don't miss the last film before Christmas, Queen of Katwe, on Thursday, December 6. It is the true story of a young girl selling corn on the streets of rural Uganda. Living in the slum of Katwe is a constant struggle for 10-year-old Phiona and her family but her world changes when she meets Robert, a missionary who teaches children how to play chess. Phiona becomes fascinated with the game and her success in local competitions and tournaments opens the door to a bright future and a chance to escape from a life of poverty.

■ The arts centre has two sold out events, Party Night with Funk Odyssey on Saturday and Jon Richardson from 8 Out of Ten Cats on Friday, December 9. If you missed out on either, like the arts centre Facebook page or follow the arts centre on Twitter so you can get to hear about changes to the programme first.

■ Coming up the arts centre has the Christmas panto Robin Hood. Starring the aforementioned Sue Hodge, who in a previous life was a saucy French waitress, the fun starts from Tuesday, December 20. It also stars Rikki Chamberlain from ITV's Captain Mack, Lloyd Notice who has starred in The Lion King in the West End and all the budding starlets from The Lisa Mason School of Dance. Book now to get your favourite seats!

■ Friday, December 2, 5pm - 8pm; Saturday, December 3, 9.30am – 3.30pm Christmas Craft and Gift Fair

■ Saturday, December 3, 8pm-1.30am Party Night with Funk Odyssey – Sold Out

■ Sunday, December 4, 4pm Haverhill Silver Band Christmas Concert

■ Monday, December 5, 1.30pm Inferno (12)

■ Monday, December 5, 7.30pm Queen of Katwe (PG)

■ Wednesday, December 7, 2pm Silverliners Line Dancing

■ Friday, December 9, 8pm Jon Richardson – Sold Out

IMPROVED: Range now 180 miles

Volkswagen raises stats for the e-Golf

THE latest version of Volkswagen's electrically powered, zero-emissions Golf will offer more power, a longer range and more high-tech features than ever.

While an improved 0-60mph acceleration time – almost a second quicker than before – is significant, the new e-Golf's main attraction will be its increased range which is around 50 per cent more than before.

Official figures on the New European Driving Cycle (NEDC) credit the latest e-Golf with a range of more than 180 miles, although in "real world" driving, Volkswagen says this new version will cover up to 125 miles or more on one battery charge, depending on driving style and the use of the air conditioning system.

The 0-60 dash is achieved in 9.6 seconds, and the top speed is 93mph.

VOLVO Cars, the premium car maker, is promising that you will never have to stop at a petrol station, go to a car wash or even take your car in for service ever again, with the launch of a range of concierge services that will become an integrated part of the Volvo On Call mobile platform.

Volvo is announcing the roll-out of a pilot program in San Francisco, targeting Volvo owners driving the new XC90 SUV and S90 luxury sedan. In an effort to make their customers' lives easier, Volvo has dug deep into consumer research to deliver on their customers' unmet needs. The pilot is due to start in November and will ramp up to include around 300 Volvo owners.

"Imagine parking your car in the morning at work and when you head home your car has been serviced, cleaned and refuelled. These are the kind of services we want to deliver to our customers. Our research shows that people spend hours every week doing these small errands – we want to give that time back to Volvo drivers, so they can do something more valuable instead," said Björn Annwall, senior vice president, Global Consumer Experience at Volvo Car Group.

Research by Volvo has shown that over seventy per cent of customers want fuelling services at their fingertips, while 56 per cent want their car picked up for routine maintenance, and 49 per cent would like to be able to have their car moved to another location when desired.

Volvo introduces concierge service

"Our approach is a simple one – we aim to make life easier by employing the latest connected technology in an easy-to-use smartphone app. We are taking an open and agile approach to this and welcome collaboration with partners with new and innovative service offers. This is just the beginning," said Anders Tylman-Mikiewicz, vice president Consumer Connectivity Services at Volvo Car Group.

The Volvo owners participating in the pilot can use the pilot app to identify concierge services available in the immediate vicinity and order them via their smartphone. Requests are then sent to an authorized Volvo service provider, who will refuel the vehicle, perform scheduled maintenance, or whatever additional service the owner has requested.

The app provides a one-time-use digital key, which is location and time-specific, and sends it out to the authorised service provider. When services are complete, the car is locked and the digital key expires. The car can also be returned to where the customer left it or delivered to a completely new location at the customer's request.

Volvo Cars' network of digital innovation labs in California, Shanghai and Gothenburg are focusing on understanding the needs of the company's growing customer base in an effort to further expand the range of services on offer. Due to the scalable nature of the Volvo On Call platform, new services can be easily added to ultimately offer a whole range of time-saving services around your car.

Prince Phillip's 'Fire Engine' Bentley up at auction

THE H&H Classics year end auction at Chateau Impney, Droitwich Spa on December 7 is something of a Christmas treat with a great selection of cars, any of which would make your day if it came gift wrapped.

There is a brace of Bristols, a great Austin-Healey, stunning Bentley Continental R in British Racing Green, and for those minded to buy a car for the London to Brighton Run there is an 1899 Phebus 2.25bhp that is just the ticket.

This H&H sale includes an intriguing 1952 Bentley R-Type Straight 8 Special – 'The Fire Engine' in black and light blue. Its mechanical specification was inspired by an experimental car that the Crewe manufacturer loaned to Prince Phillip, some decades ago, which he did not want to give back. The four-seater Tourer is estimated to sell for £60,000 to £80,000.

Built by a former director of Rolls-

Royce motorcars, and a professional engineer, in the 1990s as a tribute to Bentley's experimental 'Scalded Cat' cars, it is powered by a 6.5 litre Rolls-Royce B81 straight-eight engine allied to automatic transmission. The bespoke machine is a veteran of numerous rallies including the Bentley Drivers' Club's Tour of South Africa in 2003 (c.4,000 miles).

Rolls-Royce built two straight-eight powered Bentleys using the 'B'-series eight-cylinder variant of its standard six-cylinder engine (one of which was loaned to HRH Prince Philip who was apparently smitten with its performance to such an extent that he was reluctant to hand it back). These were dubbed 'Scalded Cats' and in the mid-1960s Robin Moore started to plan a similar car based on a R-Type Chassis.

A full and detailed history is provided with the car along with a current MOT certificate until October 2017.

UP FOR GRABS: This 1952 Bentley R-Type Straight 8 Special – known as 'The Fire Engine' – was once owned by Prince Phillip

AA Connect will identify issues pre-breakdown

A TRIAL of 'AA Connect' technology in 10,000 cars has found that almost one in five (17 per cent) developed problems that were identified before they led to a roadside breakdown, enabling the AA to repair the fault by helping to prevent an issue at the roadside.

This is in addition to identifying battery issues that could lead to a car not starting on a cold morning. After tyres, batteries represent 16 per cent of the AA's typical breakdown workload.

The AA is half way through its study, which involves understanding how connected car technology can improve people's driving experience by helping to prevent a roadside breakdown.

Alan Ferguson, head of AA Connected Car, says he is greatly encouraged by the way the system detects problems at an early stage.

"Although there is work still to do, we have been able to pinpoint potentially serious faults on some cars."

Each car is equipped with a small device plugged in to its diagnostic socket. This monitors a range of data generated by the car, such as battery condition, electrics, engine management and other systems, identifying problems before they trigger a warning light or result in a failure.

Explains Ferguson: "The data is sent real-time back to the AA as well as to the user via a supporting easy-to-use smartphone App. Although nearly nine in ten (85 per cent) users check the app daily, we also alert drivers by text if we pick up a potential issue."

AA Connect also tracks the vehicle's whereabouts, visualising driving behaviours such as speed, cornering, braking, acceleration and use of revs. This produces a scored online report, coupled with driving advice for the user. In addition, it highlights journey times, mileage and a map trail. The data has the potential to help members reduce their car insurance premiums if they can demonstrate a lower risk profile.

More than half (54 per cent) of those taking part in the trial said that the technology had enhanced their driving experience while 49 per cent said that they better understood their vehicle.

The AA is looking to provide a Connected Car service in 2017.

Latest 375bhp V6 Lotus is one for the brave only!

IF you've got the urge for a true supercar but can't run to the six figure asking price, Lotus has the answer – for less than half the price of some rivals.

With enough grunt to more than match some of the most exotic Italian and German flying machines the new Lotus Exige Sport 380 is ferociously fast and costs a "mere" £67,900.

Taking the fight straight to £100,000-plus supercars, this new, top-of-the-range model carries over the lessons learnt in the development of last year's Exige Sport 350, but with significant revisions lowering weight, boosting power and enhancing aerodynamics.

According to Lotus, this Exige is "definitely not for the timid" and "offers a pure, undiluted drive".

The Sport 380 is blisteringly fast off the line, dispatching the 0-60mph sprint in a mere 3.5 seconds before reaching a top speed of 178mph.

This stunning performance comes courtesy of an uprated 3.5-litre, supercharged V6 engine which generates 375bhp at 6,700rpm and 410Nm (302 lb ft) of torque at 5,000rpm.

The Sport 380 is available as a roadster as standard and as a coupe as an option. Various personalisation options, including a Track Pack, are available.

According to Jean-Marc Gales, CEO of Group Lotus: "The Exige Sport 380 is so good, that it is no longer the best in class, it's now in a class of its own."

THE LOTUS EXIGE SPORT 380: 'So good, it's in a class of its own'

SUV LUXURY: With premium tyres

Bridgestone is tyre choice for Maserati

MASERATI has selected Bridgestone tyres for the new Levante, the luxury brand's first-ever SUV.

The all-wheel-drive SUV started leaving the Mirafiori plant near Turin in May 2016, fitted with Bridgestone Dueler H/P Sport tyres in size 255/60 R18 108W.

Bridgestone developed the Dueler H/P Sport tyre specifically for today's high-performance SUVs. With a tread design modelled on the Potenza sport tyre pattern, Bridgestone brings drivers the high-level steering response, wet control and in-car comfort they expect from the world's most luxurious SUV models. Tyres will be marked 'MGT' to indicate approval by Maserati as original equipment on their vehicles.

Christophe de Valroger, Vice President Original Equipment, Bridgestone Europe comments: "Dueler H/P Sport is engineered to give the ultimate on-road driving experience and we believe drivers will fully appreciate this."

Bridgestone's historical relationship with Maserati started with Bridgestone's innovative development of an 18-inch run flat technology (RFT) tyre for the Maserati Quattroporte V in the early 2000s.

ON SALE SOON: Peugeot 3008 SUV

All-new 3008 priced from £21,795

THE all-new Peugeot 3008 SUV will cost from £21,795 when it goes on sale next month ahead of deliveries in the new year.

First models will be in showrooms from January 28 and the 17 model line up will top out from £32,995 for high specification GT versions.

There's four trim levels – Active, Allure, GT Line and the top-of-the-range GT – and a variety of petrol and diesel engines with CO2 emissions from 103g/km.

Petrol engine outputs are 130bhp and 165bhp with CO2 emissions of 117 to 129g/km, with the 1.2-litre PureTech three-cylinder turbo and the 1.6 THP.

Diesel prices start from £22,845 and top out with the 180bhp version in the GT.

Robson is a captain marvel for Borough

CAPTAIN Jarid Robson hit a hat-trick as Haverhill Borough thrashed Debenham 6-1 at home in the Thurlow Nunn League, First Division.

Anthony Choat, Dean Craig and Craig Pruden rounded off the win with three goals in the last eight minutes.

The hosts took the lead after just five minutes when a cross from left-back Jon Tabrar found Robson free in the middle of the penalty area and the young midfielder powered his header past the Debenham keeper.

But Debenham equalised through Paris Tuwizana.

With Casey Phillips off the pitch for 10 minutes with a nose bleed, Borough lost their momentum, but they eventually regained the lead on the half-hour mark.

A long free kick from Tommy Hardwick was flicked on by Pruden to Robson, who headed in his second goal.

Robson completed his hat-trick on 63 minutes. Hardwick's cross from the right was met by a sublime cushioned volley by Casey Phillips, which set Robson in behind the Debenham back four to slot home.

Borough assistant manager Choat added the fourth on 82 minutes, his first in senior football, following good work by Ryan Phillips who drove into the penalty area and squared the ball back for the substitute to score.

Craig added a fifth after a cross from Hardwick was dummied by Choat leaving the striker alone on the edge of the penalty area to score.

Pruden completed the scoring with a close-range header after a deep cross from Craig.

Borough's match at Team Bury on Tuesday night was postponed due to a frozen pitch.

In the Premier Division, Ben Bradley snatched the winner as Haverhill Rovers saw off Long Melford 3-2 away.

Scott Yearling put Melford in front, but Luke Haines curled Rovers' equaliser into the bottom corner from 25 yards and Jonny Milne edged them ahead from Haines' corner just before half time.

Will Winefield's penalty levelled for the hosts after Sam Holmes fouled Hassan Ally in the area, but Bradley beat the offside trap to latch on to Danny Hill's through ball to score the decisive goal on 68 minutes.

Firat is honoured at awards ceremony

YUSUF Firat picked up the members' member of the year prize at Haverhill Running Club's end-of-season awards ceremony.

The athlete (pictured below) was recognised for the support he gives his fellow runners and the amount of time he dedicates to helping others.

Paul Brough was named the most improved runner after recovering from illness, while Cheryl Trundle was deemed to have produced the most impressive performance of the season after finishing third in her age group at the London Marathon.

Away from the awards, Westley Walker finished first for the club and 18th overall in a time of 1hr 4min 20sec at the Basingstoke 10-mile road race.

There were also good performances from Andy Barber and Simon Wallace.

Southern success for KMA students

KMA Shotokan Karate School members earned a big haul of medals at the Southern England Open Karate Championships.
